

ANNUAL REPORT CULTURAL DEPARTMENT 2016-2017

Faculty in charge :- Asst. Prof Neeta Ahir

‘Art, for a true artist, is a form of meditation’.

Education is a broad concept that surpasses the four walls of a classroom. To fulfil the objective, there is a prime need of striking a balance between syllabus, curriculum, books and also co-curricular activities beyond that. Keeping in the motto of the said above our college have always supported the balance to be struck between education and co-curricular activities by supporting co-curricular activities under the garb of cultural department. It's a pleasure in penning down the cultural report for the academic year 2016-17. As this year the college with the zeal of enthusiasm and vigor started with the co-curricular activities by promoting ,supporting the students for the for their overall development with education and co-curricular. This year we started up with the most precious and renowned competition ‘Purushottam Karandak’ with a team of 16 people. The college participated after a span of 4 years in the competition and stood amongst the top 20 colleges participated all over Pune region.

This year following the tradition the college organized The Annual College Fest “ Indradhanush & Dum 2017”. An initiative which was taken up last year and continued this year in unifying the students and strengthening the bond between the sports and cultural which turned out to be a huge success. The competitions began from 3rd FEBRUARY 2017 -8TH FEBRUARY 2017. The cultural team and its volunteers transformed the college into a colorful vibrant display of our theme “Social Media And Village Life. Followed by the cultural noon where there was display of talents by good performances. In all there was organisation of 12 competitions, rangoli, bottle painting, mehendi, poster making, essay writing, extempore writing, elocution, JAM, extempore speech, hog fest, antakshari, Pictionary, solo-duet singing, mad-ads, impromptu dancing. This year the addition was organizing of the cooking competition were there was huge display of talents and a mass participation too. The days and theme like Bollywood Tollywood day and Insane-Comic Day raised the fun element.

The week old events were concluded by the prize distribution ceremony on 8th February 2017 in the presence of our chief guest Mr. Suyash Tilak (renowned Marathi actor) And Shri Ram Nimbalkar[Chairman LMC. DESSNFLC.] with our principal Dr. Rohini Honap. Who did away with the prize Distibution to the winners ,Runner-up ,Special Appreciations. Likewise every year the batch that win the most cultural and sports events is awarded with the the Class Of The Year was 5th BSL.LL.B . and the Best Student of the year Bhargavi Mahajan 5th BSL.LL.B. which was giving considering overall performance as a student throughout his/her College Career.

The year was a milestone in the cultural history of our college. It left us with a truck load of memories , forged friendships and bonds stronger than iron and made the time fly by real quick. Thus the students managed to excel in all possible way with high vigor and hard work to excel in the co-curricular this year .lastly it is the joint efforts of the faculty in charge and the student co-ordinators that this year we witnessed the taste of winning various competitions. And participation by the students from all the steams. Where the marks are made for the juniors to learn ahead and keep the flame of enthusiasm and hard work in co-curricular to be ignited in them blending the activities with their education.
