

SPORTS DEPARTMENT REPORT 2016-17

“Sports --- a life with the volume turned up”. Sports are an essential activity for physical development as well as for inculcating the value of integrity, oneness and aspiration of Success with a sporting Spirit. The Sports Department at DES Shri Navalmal Firodiya Law College has an illustrious history and this year the department has achieved the greater heights. With a renewed strength and sparkling team the department has won several accolades to the college and has reinstated the acclaimed reputation of the institute in the Sports.

Continuing with last year’s structured coordination the Department has strengthened the foundation for the students to develop further. The Structure of Sport Secretaries, the Department Coordinators and then the stratified Sport wise Captain and Coordinator has proved to be efficient and has enhanced the performance of the TEAM.

The Department has been responsibly and dedicatedly run by the Sport secretary Swaraj Patole and Virendra Ghorpade and was very well managed by the Coordinator Rajas Naik. The record was maintained accurately by Vyankatesh Shewale with the aid and Assistance of Faculty Incharge Prof. Madhushree Joshi.

The Coordinators for sport were:

Rajas Naik , Agrajeet Mulik , Venkyatesh Shewale , Prajakta Kokate ,Kunal Chandani Shubham Wadne , Sarvagya Vidyarthi , Adwait Deodhar , Ved Deshpande , Aishwarya Kalbhor, K.P Prabhuraj , Shreyas Lele , Yashodhan Chandurkar , Sanya Pore and Niranjana Gorade .

The Department commenced its wholehearted sporting work with the ‘International Yoga Day Celebration’. Yoga session was organized for the Faculty and Staff of college as per the guidelines of University.

The Department sportsmen were selected following a prescribed university eligibility and procedure and the selected team members constituted the Department for this year.

The Sports participation began on an exceptionally exhilarating sports event. With a contingent of around 40 students along with the faculty in charge Asst. Prof. Madhushree Joshi Ma’am travelling to Bangalore for the most anticipated event of the entire year hosted by NLSIU, “Spiritus”. It is with great pride that I put forth that the students competed with great zeal and enthusiasm and there was relentless spirit shown by all the participants. The students supported each other brilliantly and also fostered good relations with students of other colleges. All the students were very well disciplined and organized. This year the Contingent achieved one GOLD Medal for Badminton (Girls) and also Silver Medal in Basket Ball (Girls) as well as Tug of War (Boys). In all other sports also the team participation and performance was most competing and deserves an appreciation.

Simultaneously the Department also participated in University – inter-collegiate Sports event with the improved performance and our Badminton team won the tournament with the individual player selection in the university team for State and National level. Also on the National celebration Days namely Independence Day and Republic Day the department contributed in preparation of the celebration.

With a balance of academic pursuits and Sports practice the sport members participated in a number of events at University, State and National level events. The College also greatly supported the team with facilities, equipments and the procedural compliances.

It is well said, “The Spirit, the Will to win and the Will to excel are the things that endure, the qualities are so much so important than that the events occur”. The Department performance reflects both the numerous participation with a qualitative winning endure. The events and achievements are as follows:

The Second term of the college began with the organization and planning of the yearly college Sports fest DUM. The fest was inaugurated by two distinguished and renowned players Mrs. Tejaswini Sawant- Darekar and internally acclaimed Shooter and Shri .Pratik Waikar an Internationally acclaimed and National Kho-Kho Player. The Inauguration was undertaken very innovatively and with the overwhelming response and participation of the College Students. The Sports inauguration of Basketball at the Basket ball Court made the Commencement of the DUM events.

This year DUM event was facilitated with the class Coordinators with the department structure. All the captains and coordinators were issued a manner of conduct that was strictly abided by to foster a respect for the spirit of sports. The individual sport coordinators managed the organization of their events with utmost sincerity; all events were carried out with Sportsmanship and a good, competitive spirit.

The Class teams competed in three levels along with individual games. Some new events like Box-Cricket was introduced which was well responded by the participants. 'DUM' Winners and Runners-up teams were felicitated with the medals in the Prize distribution ceremony at the hands of a famous veteran Actor Suyash Tilak.

Overall the year was full of achievements and contentment. The Department has built a sportsmen TEAM and will definitely enhance the team year after year with added achievements in tune with our motto of "Making Excellence a prevailing Attitude".
