Feedback Report

(A.Y. 2023-24)

Feedback on teaching learning was collected from the students across all the programs, subjects and years.

Students were asked to give feedback on the following parameters:

1. Communication skills & self confidence
2. Quality of teaching
3. Refers to history and present development
4. Resourcefulness and readiness
5. Punctuality and regularity
6. Delivery of structured lecture
7. Completion of syllabus in time

Teaching learning process was rated on a scale of "excellent; very good; good; satisfactory; and unsatisfactory".

Students' feedback on teaching and learning was conducted by circulating hard copy of the feedback forms and online student satisfaction survey, observations of which are as follows

1. Majority of students appreciated quality of teaching learning in the institution.
2. Students also appreciate use of ICT tools for teaching learning, which make lectures engaging and effective.
3. However, students have expressed some concerns with respect to certain teachers.
4. Few students suggested providing competitive exam guidance, like judiciary.

Action Taken:

1. Feedbacks received were analysed by the IQAC and a collective report was submitted to the principal for the enhancement of overall teaching learning process
2. Based on this feed back analysis, the teacher was individually guided and instructed for improvement by the Principal.
3. For Interactive-learning, experts from different fields are invited as guest speakers, wherein students actively participate in interactions.
4. Students are encouraged for experiential learning through field visits. They gain first-hand experience about law in action.
5. In addition to curriculum, few more Value added courses are introduced as per inclination of students.
