II. Seminar

Seminar on SKU Organized by DES SNFLC Placement and Internship Cell .

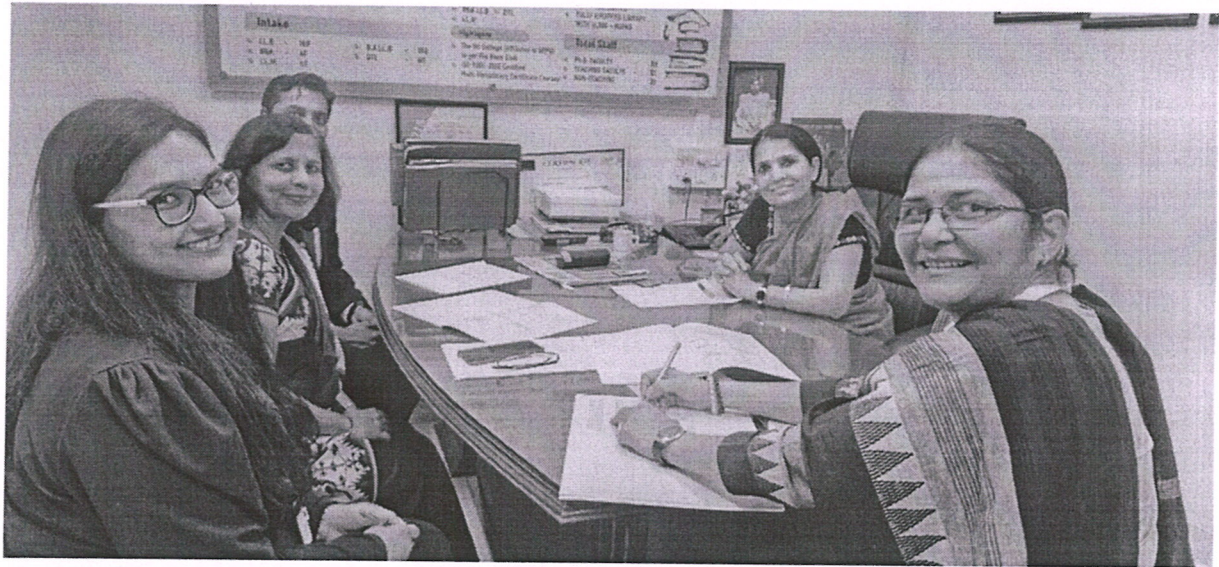

The Placement and Internship Assistance Cell of DES SNFLC recently organized a seminar featuring representatives from SKU, who provided students with valuable insights into the work and mission of SKU, a well-regarded non-governmental organization (NGO).

During the seminar, the representatives from SKU introduced students to SKU, outlining its core objectives, ongoing projects, and the impact of its initiatives. They provided a comprehensive overview of how SKU operates, its areas of focus, and the societal issues it aims to address. The discussion also covered volunteering opportunities, enabling students to explore avenues for professional and social contribution.

This session proved to be highly informative, offering students a deeper understanding of the NGO sector and the role of organizations like SKU in driving social change. The seminar concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students engaged with the representatives to gain further clarity on SKU's work and potential career opportunities in the development sector.
