Report on WILL Conference in collaboration with DES as a knowledge partner.

A.Y.2025-26

The Worldwide International Lawyers League (WILL) Conference, held on 29 January, served as a significant platform for fostering international legal dialogue, professional networking, and academic collaboration. The conference aimed to bring together legal professionals, academicians, industry representatives, and institutions from across the globe to exchange perspectives on contemporary legal challenges and emerging areas of law.

Adv. Ashok Palande, Vice Chairman, Deccan Education Society and Chairman, College Development Committee, attended the conference, reflecting the institution's strong leadership commitment towards global academic engagement and internationalisation of legal education. The conference was also attended by Dr. Sunita Adhav, Principal, Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College, underscoring the institution's focus on academic excellence and global partnerships.

Key outcomes of the conference included:

Establishment of meaningful international academic and professional connections with delegates from multiple countries

Exploration of future academic collaborations, including joint programmes, faculty exchange, and research initiatives

Enhanced understanding of comparative legal frameworks in areas such as labour and employment laws, property laws, dispute resolution, and taxation

Strengthened institutional visibility of DES Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College at an international forum

The conference reaffirmed Deccan Education Society's vision of integrating global perspectives with quality legal education, paving the way for sustained international collaborations and academic growth.
